Advisory Committee on International Economic Policy; Notice of Renewal

Renewal of Advisory Committee

The Department of State has renewed the Charter of the Advisory Committee on International Economic Policy. The Advisory Committee provides advice and assistance in the formulation of U.S. policy, positions, proposals and strategies for multilateral and bilateral negotiations particularly where the Department of State has the lead negotiating authority. More specifically, the Committee provides information and advice to the Secretary of State on effective integration of economic interests into overall foreign policy, the role and limits of international economic institutions, and State's role in advancing American commercial interests in a competitive global economy. The Under Secretary for Management has determined that the Committee is necessary and in the public interest.

The committee includes representatives of American organizations and institutions having an interest in international economic policy, and may include representatives of: American business with significant international trade interests; American labor unions; public interest groups; and/or trade and professional associations whose membership stands to be affected by international economic policy; legal or business consultants well-versed in such economic and trade aspects of foreign affairs; and academics representative of the various scholarly approaches to international economic policy.

The Assistant Secretary for Economic and Business Affairs chairs the Advisory Committee for the Secretary of State. The Committee meets quarterly. The Committee will follow the procedures prescribed by the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). Meetings will be open to the public unless a determination is made in accordance with section 10(d) of the FACA, 5 U.S.C. 552b(c)(1) and (4), that a meeting or a portion of the meeting should be closed to the public. Notice of each meeting will be provided for publication in the Federal Register as far in advance as possible prior to the meeting.

For further information, please call: Sharon Rogers, Economic and Business Affairs Bureau, U.S. Department of State, (202) 647-5968.

Dated: October 16, 1998.

Holly A. Kenworthy,

Executive Secretary, Advisory Committee on International Economic Policy.
